Notes From Cathy's Desk

Cathy Murphy - Executive Director

Lunar New Year Celebrations!

CHINA - Chinese New Year Greetings:

1. 新年好 / 新年好 (Xīnnián hao)
'New Year goodness!'

In Mandarin: /sshin-nyen haoww/
In Cantonese: /sen-nin haow/

2. 恭喜发财 / 恭喜發財 (Gōngxì fācái)
'Happiness and prosperity!'

In Mandarin: /gong-sshee faa-tseye/
In Cantonese: Kunghei fatchoy /gong-hey faa-chwhy/

KOREA - Korean New Year Greetings:

saehae bok mani badeuseyo (Hangu : 새해 복 많이 받으세요), or "Please receive good fortune for the New Year"

Known as Seollal, Korean New Year is the first day of the lunar Korean calendar.

It is the most important of the traditional Korean holidays. It consists of a period of celebrations, starting on New Year's Eve.

The Korean New Year holidays last three days. Lunar New Year is January 28, 2017.

THAILAND:

The Songkran festival (Thai: , pronounced [tʰê:t.sā.kā:n soŋ.krā:n]) is the Thai New Year's festival. The Thai New Year's Day is 13 April every year, but the holiday period includes 14-15 April as well. The word "Songkran" comes from the Sanskrit word saṃkrānti (Devanāgarī:),[2] literally "astrological passage", meaning transformation or change

Chinese New Year Preparations (January 20-26, 2017)

Laba Festival

Some Chinese start to celebrate and prepare for New Year as early as month 12 day 8 of the lunar calendar. This is a festival called Laba (腊八 Lābā /laa-baa/ '12th lunar month' + '8'). It's January 5 in 2017.

Cleaning the House

Clean house People clean their houses before Chinese New Year. From the 23rd of the 12th lunar month (January 20, 2017), Chinese people carry out a thorough cleaning of their houses. The cleaning is called "sweeping the dust", and represents a wish to put away old things, bid farewell to the old year, and welcome the New Year.

New Year Shopping

People buy New Year food and snacks, New Year decorations, and clothes for New Year before New Year's Eve. Chinese New Year, like Christmas in China, is a shopping boom time.

Chinese people may be thrifty most of the time, but they seem quite generous in their spending during their traditional festivals. For example, they buy everyone new clothes for the festival, whether they need them or not. There are New Year street markets on the days before the festival.

New Year's Eve Activities (January 27, 2017)

Putting Up Spring Couplets Putting up spring couplets
Putting Up New Year Decorations

Although some people decorate their houses several days before the festival, most people do it on New Year's Eve. Houses are decorated with red lanterns, red couplets, New Year paintings, and red lanterns. 2017 is a year of the Rooster, so monkey images will appear on decorations.

Spring couplets or New Year couplets (春联 : Chunlián /chwn-lyen/) are paired phrases, typically of seven Chinese characters each, written on red paper in black ink, and pasted one each side of a door frame.

Sometimes a phrase of four or five characters is affixed to the top of the door frame as well. New Year couplets are filled with best wishes. Some people write the couplets themselves, but most people buy them (ready printed) from the market. Pasting spring couplets is thought to keep evil away.

Putting Up New Year Paintings

It is a custom to paste paper cut-outs on windows during the Chinese New Year. New Year paintings carrying best wishes are put up to decorate houses, creating a happy and prosperous Spring Festival atmosphere.

The subjects of New Year paintings are often flowers and birds, plump boys and Guanyin (the Goddess of Mercy... and fertility), golden roosters, oxen, ripe fruit and treasure, or other legends and historical stories, showing desires for bountiful harvests and a happy life.

"The Four Homelands of the New Year Painting" are New-Year-Painting Village in Mianzhu, Sichuan Province; Taohuawu in Suzhou, Yangliuqing in Tianjin, and Weifang in Shandong.

Putting Up Paper Cut-outs

In the past people pasted paper cut-outs on windows facing south and north before the Spring Festival. Paper cut-outs are still popular with northerners, but people in the south only paste paper cut-outs on wedding days.

The subjects and themes of paper cut-outs are rich. As the majority of buyers are peasants many are about rural life: farming, weaving, fishing, tending sheep, feeding pigs, raising chickens, etc. Paper cut-outs sometimes depict myths, legends, and Chinese operas. Also flowers, birds, and Chinese Zodiac creatures are popular paper cut-out designs.

Paper cut-outs are usually diamond-shaped in lucky red, with beautiful and exaggerated patterns. They express hopes of a merry and prosperous life, in line with the Spring Festival theme.

Enjoying a Reunion Dinner

Chinese New Year Eve dinner

The New Year's Eve Feast is a "must do" dinner with all family members reuniting. Chinese try very hard to make this family event, often traveling long distances. This is the main reason for the huge travel stress throughout China.

People from north and south China eat different foods on this special occasion, and many New Year foods are symbolic. In northern China a traditional dish for the feast is jiaozi (dumplings).

They are shaped like old Chinese ingots, symbolizing wealth. Southern Chinese eat niangao (sticky rice cake) on this special day, because niangao sounds like "yearly higher", symbolizing improvement.

Watching CCTV's New Year Gala

It's become a China custom for many families to watch the CCTV New Year Gala while having their dinner. The Gala starts at 8pm and ends at midnight when the New Year arrives, featuring traditional, folk, and pop performances from China's best singers, dancers, and acrobats.

Giving Red Envelopes (Lucky Money) to Kids

Chinese new year lucky money

Parents usually give their children red envelopes after the reunion dinner, wishing them health, growth, and good studies in the coming year. Red envelopes always have money in. Money in red envelopes is believed to bring good luck, as red is China's lucky color, so it's called lucky money.

Staying Up Late

This custom is called shousui (守岁 /show-sway/ 'to keep watch over the year'). Chinese stayed up all night in the past, but now most stay up only till the midnight firecrackers and fireworks die down.

Listening to a New Year Bell

A bell is a traditional symbol of Chinese New Year, and Chinese believe that ringing a large bell can drive all bad luck away and bring good fortune. Chinese people like to go to large squares or temples where there are huge bells rung on New Year's Eve at midnight.

In recent years' people have begun to go to mountain temples to wait for the first ringing of a bell in the new year. Hanshan Temple in Suzhou, in East China's Jiangsu Province, is famous for its bell to herald Chinese New Year. The custom is even beginning to be adopted by the expat community there.

Chinese New Year's Day (January 28, 2017)

Chinese people believe what they do on the first day of the lunar year affects their luck in that year.

Setting Off Firecrackers and Fireworks

Chinese New Year fireworks display

The moment New Year arrives there is a cacophony of fireworks and firecrackers all around, even in rural China. Consider earplugs - it's like World War III! Fireworks sound like rocket launchers, and chains of firecrackers make machine-gun-like noises. Families stay up for this joyful moment. See Why Chinese New Year Must Have Firecrackers?

In major cities: Lighting firecrackers is one of the most important customs of the Chinese New Year celebration, but because of the danger and the noise disturbance they cause, the government has banned this practice in many major cities, such as Beijing, Guangzhou, and Shanghai. Fireworks that explode in the air are still allowed in most of the country.

People in smaller cities, towns, and rural areas still practice the firecracker tradition, and it isn't generally considered dangerous. Just as the clock strikes 12, cities and towns are lit up with the bang and sparkle of fireworks bursting in the air. The booms from many firework displays help to make it astoundingly loud in many places.

Kids, with (mini) firecrackers in one hand and a lighter in another, cheerfully celebrate by throwing the small explosives one-by-one on the street whilst plugging their ears. Mini hand-held rocket launchers are also popular with children, which launch 10 or 20 small fireworks at 5 second intervals, looping across the streets.

Many people attend or watch the public and private firework displays exploding for about forty minutes from their windows.

Adoption Tax Credit

If your family has completed your child's adoption in the 2016 fiscal year, please check the CRA web site for information about the adoption tax credit.

<http://www.cra-arc.gc.ca/tx/ndvdl/tpcs/ncm-tx/rtrn/cmpltng/ddctns/Ins300-350/313/menu-eng.html>

Line 313 - Adoption expenses

As a parent, you can claim an amount for eligible adoption expenses related to the adoption of a child who is under 18 years of age. The maximum claim for each child is $15,453. You can only claim these incurred expenses in the tax year including the end of the adoption period for the child.

CIC Record of Landing Form

Every person who lands in Canada as a permanent resident is given an IMM 1000 Record of Landing document. The way this document looks has changed many times, but it always shows the immigrant's name, date of birth, and the date they landed in Canada as a permanent resident.

Adoptees will need to show a copy of the IMM 1000 to get their Old Age Pension through Service Canada. If a person was not born in Canada, the Old Age Pension application will not be processed without a copy of the IMM 1000 because you must show that you have lived in Canada for at least 10 years to collect Old Age Pension.

The Children's Bridge recommends all adoptive families keep their child's Record of Landing form, original adoption paperwork, birth certificate, citizenship and passport in a home safe or safety deposit box for safe keeping.

Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) Reminder (from the CIC web site):

As prospective adoptive parents we recommend you learn about CIC's role in intercountry adoption. The Children's Bridge is not able to influence the CIC process. CIC will complete a thorough review before issuing a permanent resident visa, or a Canadian passport through a grant of citizenship. The length of time a review usually takes can be provided by The Children's Bridge for your adoption program but you must keep in mind each CIC Mission has different processing times and any CIC application can take longer to review if CIC deems it necessary to do so.

<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/immigrate/adoption/role.asp>

CIC's first priority is to ensure that the child's rights are protected in accordance with our international obligations in adoption cases and our obligations under Canadian law.

In some parts of the world, child trafficking is a serious concern, documentation is non-existent or unreliable, there is evidence of wrongdoing in the adoption system or infrastructure to protect children is limited. In these cases, CIC must take more steps to verify that the best interests of children being adopted by Canadian citizens and permanent residents are respected.

Intercountry adoption procedures put in place by CIC are meant to protect the best interests of the child. These include requiring proof that the biological parents have given their free and informed consent to the adoption before it takes place, and confirming that the adoption follows the laws of both countries.

With respect to children who may be orphaned, it is international policy and practice to try to first find homes for them in their own country before uprooting and placing them in a foreign country. The United Nation's Children's Fund's UNICEF position on cases of children separated from their parents and communities during war or natural disasters is that such children should not be considered for inter-country adoption, and family tracing should be the priority.

Canadians planning to adopt a child from another country must follow their province or territory's regulations for international adoptions and abide by the laws of the child's country of origin. CIC wants to eliminate any shortcuts in the adoption process that could enable unscrupulous people to obtain children for the purpose of human trafficking.

To avoid unnecessary expense and disappointment, adoptive parents should not plan to return to Canada with the adopted child until they know for certain that all immigration or citizenship requirements have been met.

CIC plays no role in the first step of the intercountry adoption process. The immigration or citizenship process cannot begin until the adoption has been finalized. Once the adoption has been finalized, you can begin the immigration or citizenship process to bring your adopted child to Canada.

Does an adopted child need a travel document, like a visa, to come to Canada?

Yes. Before bringing your child to Canada, you must apply for the necessary travel document in order for your child to legally enter Canada. The document is either a permanent resident visa, or a Canadian passport through a grant of citizenship. To avoid unnecessary delays and costs, adoptive parents should not plan to return to Canada with the adopted child until they know with certainty that all immigration or citizenship requirements have been met.

If my adopted child's application is refused, what can I do?

The process to appeal the decision is different for the immigration and citizenship process.

Immigration

If your adopted child's application for permanent residence is refused, you may appeal the decision to the Immigration Appeal Division at the Immigration and Refugee Board.

Citizenship

If your adopted child's application for a grant of citizenship is refused, you may apply for a judicial review of the decision to the Federal Court of Canada.

Finalization in country

We currently have one other family in India that is at the final stages of their adoption process in-country and hoping to return to Canada with their child soon. Most families in the India program will go through the citizenship process with CIC and the final stage, applying for citizenship after the adoption order is issued, has taken up to 2 months for some families. Each family has a slightly different process and we will do our best to assist families through this stage.

OCI Status:

CARA's guideline's certainly say that adopted children are eligible for OCI status - this is from the US State department: CARA's Guidelines Governing the Adoption of Children, 2015 state that an adopted Indian child shall be entitled to receive an Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) card, if found eligible. For more information about the procedure for applying for OCI status for your child, please contact the nearest Indian Embassy or consulate.

Families can apply online for OCI status here : <https://passport.gov.in/oci/welcome>

Relinquishing Indian Passport and Renouncing Citizenship

Once families are home in Canada with their children, they must complete a formal process renouncing Indian citizenship (dual citizenship is not possible in this adoption program). This must be done within 3-years of receiving Canadian Citizenship (or Record of Landing if you complete the Permanent Resident Visa route). It is very important to complete this step, as failure to do so may result in penalties when your child travels back to India at any point in their life. It is a punishable offence under the Indian Passport Act, 1967, to apply for an Indian passport, continue to hold an Indian passport, get an Indian passport re-issued or travel on an Indian passport after acquiring foreign citizenship. Under Indian law, Persons of Indian Origin (PIOs) who have acquired foreign citizenship are required to surrender their Indian passports to the nearest Indian Mission/Post immediately after acquisition of foreign citizenship.

Please see this link for more information on relinquishing Indian citizenship and relinquishing your child's Indian passport: http://www.blsindia-canada.com/renunciation_ppt.php

Foreigners Regional Registration Office and NOC

There has been a new requirement put in place by the Indian government that all families must obtain a "No Objection Certificate" (NOC) from the Foreigners Regional Registration Office (FRRO) before you bring your child home from India. This is also a requirement for adoptive parents who hold OCI status and will travel on a Canadian passport. This NOC is essentially an exit permit and families will need to apply for it at the FRRO before departing India.

The adoptive parents are advised to first contact the FRRO office to request an appointment date and bring along with them the printout of the online application form and relevant documents pertaining to their adoption. The exit permit(s) shall be granted within three working days after submission.

I am happy to provide traveling families with more detailed information about this process once they are at this stage in their adoption process. Please note: It is highly recommended that all families travel to Delhi in order to apply to the Delhi FRRO office. The Delhi office is more familiar with the process and has been able to keep to the 3-day turnaround time. As well, the CARA office is close in proximity, which means documents that are needed can be accessed in person and in a timely fashion by the adoptive family or the FRRO officers.

CARA has advised that parents can contact the FRRO support desk by telephone at 91 11 2671-1443 or by e-mail at frrodli.support@nic.in OR frrodli.support@gov.in for assistance in obtaining this document.

The address for the FRRO office in Delhi is as follows:

Foreigners Regional Registration Office
East Block VIII Level II ,
Sec 1, R K Puram, Delhi - 110066
+(91)-(11)-26711074, 26711384, 26711443, 26711348

Citizenship process - part 1

The citizenship process through CIC is now taking up to 12-months for families to be approved for part 1. Because of the lengthening timelines, it is important that families apply to CIC at the very beginning of their adoption process to ensure there is enough time to be approved before receiving a referral from their orphanage so that there will not be a delay when accepting a referral/finalizing the adoption process.

If you have questions about the application process, please do not hesitate to contact me. Once an approval by CIC for part one is received by the adoptive parents, a copy should be emailed to me for your file.

CARA is now accepting families for both their mainstream program and their special needs stream. Most children are over 3 at time of referral, and they have still emphasized the need for families for older children. There are many older children waiting for families in India so CARA is able to match families fairly quickly who are open to children over the age of 7 or 8 years old.

If you have any questions about the India adoption program, please do not hesitate to contact me at Karyn.bakelaar@childrensbridge.com.

Celebrating Seollal (Lunar New Year) in Korea

Seollal is one of South Korea's largest holidays of the year. The primary purpose of Seollal is to pay respect to ancestors, but it has also become a mechanism of keeping families together. As parents and siblings drift apart due to work, school, marriage, and other obligations, Seollal brings the family back together for a time of respect of happiness. The people of South Korea often receive time off to celebrate the five-day holiday (Jan 27-29).

Prior to the Seollal celebration, people celebrating have many preparations to make. In South Korea, many gifts are given, so there is much shopping to be done. People must also travel to a single location to celebrate with their families, so transportation must be arranged. Seollal is one of the busiest travel periods for South Korea, so it is important for people to purchase tickets and book accommodations well in advance. Food must also be purchased for the family meals and ancestral rites.

- Gifts

Gift giving has become a major aspect of the Seollal holiday in South Korea. While the types of gifts given will vary depending on financial situations, individual preference, and family traditions, there are some gifts that are standard for the holiday. Nowadays, some of the most frequently gifted presents include money and gift cards to department stores and shops. Children often give gifts like ginseng and health products to their parents. Other popular gift choices include toiletries, sweets, fish, and fruit.

- Ancestral Rites

On the morning of the Seollal holiday, family members offer ancestral rites to their deceased relatives. These rites are relatively humble, but they usually consist of simple ritual foods and good prayers. The purpose of these rites is to honor the memory of ancestors and wish them good fortune.

- Games

During the day of Seollal, it is common for people celebrating the holiday to play games with each other. One of the most popular games is yutnori. Yutnori is a board game played with sticks and has fairly simple rules. It can be played in teams, so all members of the family can engage in some fun competition to reconnect during the New Year holiday. One of the other major activities to celebrate during the lunar New Year in South Korea is yeon-naligi. Yeon-naligi is the Korean term for kite flying. If the weather is nice, both children and adults go outside to fly brightly colored kites in the sky. Meanwhile, members of the family will share stories about the past year. Popular topics include love interests, job promotions, jokes, and the future. Speaking about disease, death, and other dark topics is frowned upon during Seollal.

- Clothing

During meals and Seollal celebrations in South Korea, it is customary for all members of the family to wear hanbok, the traditional clothing of Korean people. These clothes are simple dresses for women or vests and pants for men. Hanbok outfits often are often colored with bright reds, pinks, or oranges.

- Food

Seollal is known for its large feast of traditional Korean food. One of the main dishes during this holiday is tteokguk. Tteokguk is a soup made of beef, vegetables, egg, and rice cakes. According to Korean traditions, this dish is supposed to promote longevity through life-extending properties. Galbijjim is another dish commonly enjoyed during Seollal. Galbijjim are beef short ribs that are steamed and sliced into small pieces and cooked in a pot of soy sauce, pepper, sesame oil, scallions, and sugar. The dish is slow cooked so that the meat is tender and full of a savory flavor. These dishes are sometimes paired with three-color namul, a popular Korean vegetable dish. While the exact composition of the dish varies depending on area and preference, the three-color namul is made up of three vegetables that are colored green, white, and brown. Popular choices include spinach, fern shoots, and balloon flower roots. After finishing a meal during the lunar New Year in Korea, it is customary for the entire family to pay respect to ancestors with a brief prayer.

- Sebae

Sebae (세배 , 歲拜 , worship elders) is a ritual of filial piety that is traditionally observed on Seollal. Dressed in traditional clothing , children wish their elders (grandparents, parents and aunts and uncles) a happy new year by performing a deep traditional bow (rites with more than one bow involved are usually for the deceased) and the words saehae bok mani badeuseyo (Hangul : 새해 복 많이 받으세요), or "Please receive good fortune for the New Year". Elders typically reward this gesture by giving children new year's money, or "pocket money" (usually in the form of crisp paper money) in silk bags made with beautiful traditional designs, as well as offering words of wisdom (dökdam). Historically, parents gave out rice cakes (ddeok) and fruit to their children.

REFERRAL NEWS!!!

Referrals were received earlier this month of two beautiful baby boys aged 6 ½ months and 7 months. Wait for referral was one month and 4 ½ months. Congratulations to both families!

TRAVEL NOTICE!

We were advised on December 23, 2016 that COPR had been issued for the child of one of our family's whose court date was October 21, 2016. They have since made the second trip and are now home. Referral date March 3, 2016.

Finally, COPR was issued on January 19, 2017 for a family who had a court date on November 15, 2016. This family received their referral in September 2015. It is rare to have such a long timeline but it can happen as each case is unique.

COURT DATES AND TRAVEL NOTICES

Timelines from referral acceptance to travel for court (first trip) can take 7 to 12 months once referral acceptance is submitted to SWS. Each case is different and court date notices can be set out of order. Timelines cannot be guaranteed.

Estimated second travel notice is issued once Confirmation of Permanent Residence (COPR) is received by SWS can take anywhere from 6 to 16 weeks from court date.

SWS Guest House Update: The SWS Guesthouse is closed for an indefinite period and we are unsure as to why. I have recently updated the Referral Booklet/Travel guide current hotel/accommodation information.

WHAT TO EXPECT AT THE ADOPTION COURT HEARING:

Below is some information from SWS regarding what to expect at the court hearings in Korea. We hope that all families will feel prepared as they attend court for the finalization of their adoption, and encourage all families to review the questions below and how they would answer each one. Families will either attend court on a Thursday or Friday, and SWS has compiled some questions that families have been asked by each judge. We advise that families should prepare themselves for all questions regardless of which day they attend court.

The following are examples of questions that a judge may ask:

1. Did you meet with your prospective adoptive child? How was it? How did the child do?
2. If you have a child/children, does he/she/they know about this adoption? How did he/she/they respond?
3. After meeting with the prospective adoptive child, was there any change in your decision to adopt?
4. Questions about the occupations of the parents
5. Who is going to be the primary caretaker?
6. How are you going to raise your child (your parenting plan)?
7. What is your motivation to adopt from Korea? Is there any community around you or your neighborhood that can support your adoption?
8. How long has it been since you first applied for adoption?
9. When were you matched with your child? Or how long has it been since the matching?
10. Was there any difficulty in pursuing the adoption process?
11. Lastly do you have anything to say?

Some judges may ask questions based on the homestudy and psychological evaluation. Reviewing your own homestudy and psychological evaluation report beforehand would be very helpful.

When you answer the judge, you should be looking at him/her, not the translator, although he/she may not be able to understand what you say. And please smile! Don't be nervous! You just show how much you love your child and just be truthful!

INFORMATION ON ADOPTING A SECOND CHILD FROM S. KOREA

We have received information from SWS about families that are interested in pursuing a second adoption from South Korea. The Ministry of Health and Welfare has agreed to accept families who are under the age of 50 at time of placement for second adoptions, or for first adoptions if the family is of Korean heritage or an adult adoptee.

Prospective adoptive parents would be required to receive special permission regarding their age in advance. If a family is interested in completing an adoption and is over the age of 45, SWS will ask the Ministry for permission before the family can proceed.

The conditions in which the upper age limit for adoptive parents may be 50 at time of placement are as follows:

- Both parents are of Korean heritage, OR
- Either parent is an adoptee themselves (of any heritage), OR
- Parents (of any heritage) already have previously adopted a child from Korea.

Due to the approximate time frame for adoptions from South Korea, SWS has informed us that they would require the family's dossier before they turn 48.

If you meet these requirements and are interested in adopting from South Korea, please do not hesitate to contact me for further details.

ADOPTION ORDER AND CONFIRMATION OF PERMANENT RESIDENCE

Historically, the estimated time for COPR issuing is 4 to 6 weeks after Manila receives paperwork from SWS. However, we've seen as long as 16 weeks for a few cases. SWS will send the immigration paperwork to Manila approximately 1 week after the confirmed adoption order has been issued as there is translation required. SWS will inform us when a family is ready to travel for the second trip once they have received the COPR, not when Manila says they have issued it as we do not want families waiting in Korea for an indefinite and longer stay.

APPLYING FOR CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP WITHIN 30 DAYS OF ARRIVAL HOME

Families who have returned home must complete the application for Canadian citizenship for their child within 30 days of arriving home. All of the children adopted from Korea will be returning to Canada as permanent residents and therefore families will need to apply for citizenship as it is not automatically granted to internationally adopted children.

A copy of the completed application should be scanned and emailed to our agency and I will forward to SWS. The family court in Seoul will not issue Adoption Orders if families do not comply and apply for citizenship. Not applying for citizenship will affect all families in process waiting for their Adoption Order.

Please note that CIC has updated their website and their forms as of June 2015. The current citizenship application that should be completed by families when they return home is found here: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/pdf/kits/citizen/CIT0003E-2.pdf> .

If you have any difficulties, we suggest that you contact CIC to ask specific questions about your application.

Adoption Program News

I'm very excited to announce that I will be travelling to Thailand in March! I'm looking forward to meeting our partners at the DCY and Thai Red Cross as well as visiting some baby homes in and around Bangkok and in Chiang Mai.

Stats

Over the last 5 years, the average age of child at proposal was 23 months. There have been twice as many boys referred as girls.

Harvey, Lori, Watcharin and Yiwa are all leaving next week! I'd like to wish them a wonderful, safe adoption journey!

Families Waiting (Files in Thailand)

Family	Dossier to DCY	Province

J & L	November 2015	NS
G & E	November 2015	ON
M & J	November 2015	ON
T & A	December 2015	ON
J & C	March 2016	NS
J & K	August 2016	ON
A & B	December 2016	ON

Two family's files are being processed at the Thai Embassy and these will be sent to Thailand within the next couple of week. In addition to these two files, 10 families are at various stages of the process (working on their home study or dossier).

Of the 12 files mentioned above, six are adopting from our Waiting Children program so are not part of the DCY quota. As well, two of the above will be processed through the TRCCH.

The TRCCH has given us a quota of 3 files this year. We have not had confirmation of our quota from the DCY.

Ministry

The Ministry has indicated that they are processing files in 4 - 6 weeks.

Family P & R's home study was received at the Ministry on November 14 th and we received their Letter of Approval via email on January 5, 2017.

Family C & L's home study was received by the Ministry on November 18th.

Waiting Children Program

If you are interested in adopting an older child (over 4 years of age) or a child with special medical needs, note that this type of adoption does not fall in the same quota for mainstream adoptions and the requirements for families adopting older children or those with special needs are not as restrictive (for example, the age of the adoptive applicants and/or other children in the home could be amended) and the timeline may be quicker.

If you are interested in this program, please contact me for more detailed information.

Travelling outside of Canada (before adoption finalization)

When you come home with your child and you want to travel with him/her outside of Canada, you are required to obtain a Statutory Declaration from our office to travel since the adoption is not finalized. The Children's Bridge is the guardian of the child until the adoption is finalized. Finalization happens approximately 1 year after you arrive home. Please contact me if you are travelling outside of Canada. Children travelling to the US before finalization need to obtain a US visitor's Visa as they are not Canadian Citizens. Please call your local US consulate for further details.

Immigration Sponsorship

Please ensure that you have applied for Immigration Sponsorship approximately two years after your dossier has gone to Thailand or sooner if in the Waiting Children Program. Timelines have become a little unpredictable and we want to make sure that you have been approved to sponsor well before a referral is received. We have just learned that Immigration Sponsorship approvals expire after 2 years and so we have changed when you apply for this.

Citizenship and Immigration 1-888-242 2100

<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/applications/family.asp>

Once you submit this to immigration you will receive a letter with a UCI # and Application Number on it. Please note these used to be called Kit and Client ID #. Please email this number to me and/or scan and email me a copy of the document. Keep the package that CIC sends to you in a safe place, as you will need to take it to Thailand with you. Immigration paperwork must be completed well before you receive your referral.

CCCWA

At this time, we only have five (5) families remaining in the mainstream/expedited China program. Due to the unpredictability of the program, we are unsure when they will receive a proposal.

The CCCWA have matched up to January 10, 2007. They are unable to tell us when any family can expect a referral. They are not even matching 1 day/month and in the last 4 months they did not match 1 child.

We would strongly recommend that the families still in this program consider other options. Please do call me to discuss your individual situation.

Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC):

If you have applied for direct citizenship (as opposed to immigration sponsorship), please remember that your application is only valid for 2 years. If you are close to expiry, you can simply write them a letter asking for an extension.

Applying for Citizenship

Once home, everyone will have to apply for citizenship (in some form) for their child. There are two ways to apply for citizenship now. One would entitle Canadian citizenship to your child's future children should they be born outside of Canada, the other application wouldn't. This new system has caused much confusion for families and even CIC don't always give the correct information.

It's critical that you complete the correct form. If you applied for direct citizenship, you will apply for a citizenship certificate (<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/applications/cit-adoption.asp>).

If you applied for immigration sponsorship (therefore your child entered Canada as a Permanent Resident), you will fill out a citizenship application (<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/applications/guides/CIT0003E2.asp>).

If you are unclear, please call CIC and explain that you would like to apply for his/her Canadian citizenship at this time. You would like to apply to ensure that if your child was to have children while living outside of Canada, that their children will be granted Canadian citizenship status.

If you have applied for citizenship (to the wrong process) but it has not yet been granted, you can call CIC to stop the process and switch to another. This cannot happen if citizenship has already been granted.

It generally takes less than a year to receive citizenship.

If you do NOT apply for citizenship, your child remains a Chinese citizen, cannot vote, cannot hold certain jobs and can be deported. As well, you cannot apply for a passport unless you have citizenship.

CHINA HOMELAND VISIT

We have 3 families that will be participating in the March homeland tour. These families decided that they would prefer to visit Xi'an and Chengdu (Panda Breeding facility) rather than take the cruise and we were happy to accommodate their request.

The summer tour package will be available shortly.

If you are interested in participating in a tour or would like to customize a trip, please contact me.

Welcome home to the Chim family who arrived home on January 20, 2017!

We wish the Thompson, Palmer and Kirby/Yee families a wonderful adoption journey. They will travel to China at the end of February to receive their sons!

The Children's Bridge will receive our next set of individual children's files from the CCCWA in May 2017.

I will be travelling to China in March 2017 to visit with officials at the CCCWA, in-country staff and our adoption travel services team.

All of the families in the WC China Program must now be open to adopting a child of either gender, as there are equal numbers of boys and girls in this program waiting for families. Our goal as an agency is to find the right family for a waiting child.

Families considering our WC China Program must be open to considering a variety of special medical needs keeping in mind cleft lip and cleft palate continues to be the most common special medical need in our program. The Children's Bridge has placed children with the following special medical needs over the past two years: cleft lip and cleft palate, congenital heart disease, missing hand, club foot, visual impairment, hearing impairment, Hep B and developmental delay. The children waiting for families in our WC China Program are toddlers and preschoolers. On average, the boys have been between 2-3 years of age and the girls between 3 -5 years of age at time of referral.

Our WC China Program is currently full and we will be accepting names on our call back (waiting list).
